

FIU honors Pappas family

The Insitute for Family Business of the Eugenio Pino and Family Global Entrepreneurship Center at Florida International University recently honored the Pappas family of the Keyes Co. with the Albert Haar Family Business Award.

About 150 business and community leader, top Keyes Co. Realtors and FIU students attended a luncheon to honor the Pappas family for their entrepreneurial skills over the last eight decades.

Above, Keyes Co. Chairman Ted Pappas with undergraduate and graduate students from FIU.

Top right, Lorraine Sonnabend and Stephen Sonnabend, senior VP of Sonesta International Hotels Corp.

Below right, Barbara Ross, Tom Rabatie and Nita Summers of the Keyes Co.

Fidelity Federal's golden opening

West Palm Beach-based Fidelity Federal Bank & Trust celebrated an important milestone, opening its 50th branch in Coconut Creek.

"We look forward to putting [our] reputation to work in Broward County, Fidelity Federal CEO Vince Elhilow said.

Left, Dennis Casey, first VP and director of marketing, and Cindy Cahill, first VP and regional manager.

Below, Michael Coady, senior VP of retail/branch banking; Patti Hale, associate VP and Coconut Creek branch manager; and Robert Fugate, executive VP of financial services/investments.

Got events coming up that showcase your company or organization beyond the workplace? Please let us know. Only digital photos are accepted. Contact Associate Editor Eileen Cukier at (954) 949-7518 or via e-mail at ecukier@bizjournals.com.